BEAUTIST
daily detangling
conditioning treatment
With Organic Calendula flower from Anjou

This conditioner gently detangles the lengths thanks to a 100% plant-based conditioning agent, manufactured in France. Its formula is especially formulated for daily use and is enriched with organic Calendula extract known for its softening and purifying properties and with plant-based Glycerin with moisturizing properties. Its light texture quickly penetrates the hair fiber, bringing shine and softness to the hair.

Apply to washed and towel-dried hair. Detangle hair then rinse thoroughly.
